'GOVT DOES NOT HAVE STRATEGY ON CHINA'

Hinduism & Hindutva are 'different things': Rahul amid Khurshid row

OUR CORRESPONDENT

WARDHA/NEW DELHI: Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Friday maintained that Hinduism and Hindutva are "different things" and slammed the ideology of the BJP-RSS alleging it has spread hatred in India.

Rahul Gandhi

Observing that his party's ideology is alive and vibrant and is like a "beautiful jewel" with an unending power inside it, but it has been overshadowed by the BJP, Gandhi also said in today's India, ideological fight has become very important.

Is Hinduism about beating a Sikh, or a Muslim. Hindutva, of course, is. In which book is it written? I have not seen it. I have read the Upanishads. I have not read it, Gandhi said, as he sought to draw a distinction between Hinduism and Hindutva, a term widely used by the Rashtriya Swyamsevaka Sangh (RSS).

"What is the difference between Hinduism as we know it and Hindutva. Are they the same thing. Can they be the same thing. If they are the same thing, why don't they have the same name. Why do they have a different name. Why do you use the word Hinduism, why not just use Hindutva if they are the same thing. They are obviously different things".

The remarks by Gandhi that escalated the political heat between the BJP and the Congress ahead of the assembly polls in five states including Uttar Pradesh came a day after senior Congress leader

Salman Khurshid sparked a row by comparing a "robust version" of Hindutva to the jihadist Islam of terror groups such as the ISIS and Boko Haram. Khurshid, who stood by his remarks made in his new book on Ayodhya verdict, had come under attack on Thursday from the BJP as well as his party colleague Ghulam Nabi Azad.

Gandhi said that if crystallized, the Congress ideology will envelope that of the BJP-RSS, and emphasised on strengthening his party's ideas within the organisation and spreading them across the country. Gandhi was addressing online a four-day AICC orientation programme organised at Sevagram Ashram in Wardha in Maharashtra. Congress representatives from across the states are participating in the event.

Rahul Gandhi alleged that the country's national security is "unpardonably compromised" as the government does not have a strategy on China.

FB used by BJP as weapon to spread hate: Congress

OUR CORRESPONDENT

NEW DELHI: Alleging that Facebook was being used as a weapon by the BJP to spread hate and fake news in the country, the Congress on Friday demanded a JPC probe on the issue and laws be enacted to restrict Facebook and WhatsApp.

While writing a letter to Mark Zuckerberg, the principal Opposition party has also alleged that India's democracy is being manipulated by an American technology company and demanded that it hold an independent inquiry into the issue.

While addressing a Press conference, Congress leaders Rohan Gupta and Praveen Chakravarty said that in the last two years, an abundance of evidence had been released that point to the negligence by the company in controlling hate speech.

In his letter to Zuckerberg, Gupta, who heads the social media department of Congress, said, "I strongly urge you to conduct an internal inquiry into the functioning of Facebook India and release the findings to the public. It is your responsibility as the head of this organisation to hold those responsible for betraying our people accountable for their actions."

"Facebook has become a weapon of the BJP in spreading hatred in the country. There is an attempt to attack the unity of our country and everyone has to understand this and fight it together," he told reporters.

Congress has 'pathological hatred' for Hinduism: BJP

OUR CORRESPONDENT

NEW DELHI: The BJP claimed on Friday that the Congress leadership nurses "pathological hatred" for Hinduism as it hit out at Rahul Gandhi for his criticism of Hindutva, saying it is at his behest that Congress leaders like Salman Khurshid, Shashi Tharoor and P Chidambaram have allegedly targeted the religion.

BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra attacked Gandhi after the Congress leader sought to draw a distinction between Hinduism and Hindutva, a term widely used by the RSS, and alleged that the RSS-BJP ideology was about spreading hate.

Patra alleged that Gandhi has a history of making critical comments about Hinduism and its culture.

It is in the character of the Congress and the Gandhi family to attack Hinduism at every opportunity, he said. Citing terms like Hindu Pakistan, Hindu Taliban and saffron terror used by Congress leaders Tharoor and Chidambaram, he said they make these remarks at Gandhi's behest. He also referred to Digvijay Singh and Mani Shankar Aiyar in this context.

"What they say is not a coincidence but an experiment. And the headmaster of this experimental lab is Rahul Gandhi... There is a pathological hatred for Hinduism among Congress leaders, and they get traction for this from the Gandhi family," he alleged.

Patra also referred to a comment of Rahul Gandhi, which had found a mention in the WikiLeaks in 2010, that Hindu extremist groups could pose a bigger danger to India than Islamic terror organisation and some other remarks to attack him.

Gandhi had linked atrocities against women to Indian culture, he claimed.

The BJP's attack on Gandhi came a day after the ruling party had slammed the opposition party over its leader Salman Khurshid comparing Hindutva with the jihadist Islam of terrorist groups such as ISIS and Boko Haram in his latest book.

It is clear that Khurshid has also endorsed what Rahul Gandhi has been saying, Patra said. People of India will never forgive the Congress, he said.

Patra said seeking apology from him would be irrelevant. The Congress leader, he alleged, has violated constitutional tenets with his remarks that spread "hate" in society.

The Congress, he said, had also tried to delay the court hearing in the Ram temple case and had, when in power, questioned the existence of Lord Ram. To a question about the Congress drawing a distinction between Hinduism and Hindutva, Patra shot back, "Can they talk on similar lines about other religions? Of course not. They cannot talk of similar issues in any other religion. The question is why do they talk ill of Hinduism all the time?"

PM Modi likely to attend Janjatiya Gaurav Divas in Bhopal on Nov 15

SATYAPRAKASH SHARMA

BHOPAL: Prime Minister Narendra Modi is likely to attend a Janjatiya Gaurav Divas (JGD), celebrating first-ever by the BJP-led Madhya Pradesh government to mark the birth anniversary of the tribal leader Birsu Munda on November 15 in Bhopal. It is considered that holding the mega tribal convention is to be a game plan of the saffron party to woo the schedule tribes (STs) who play a decisive role in the Assembly elections.

During the visit, PM is also expected to dedicate the newly developed world-class Habiganj railway station to the public. Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan has been keeping an eye on the preparations to make historic the JGD and the PM's visit. Chouhan on Monday held a meeting with his cabinet colleagues to review the arrangements for warm welcoming of PM Modi and the convention. He assigned the significant responsibilities of preparations to the ministers. Chouhan also directed officials to highlight the culture, tradition and life values of tribals during the JGD.

BJP is riding high after snatching the Schedule Tribe reserved, Jobat Assembly seat a stronghold of Congress in the recently concluded by-polls. After breaking into the Nimar region, which has the highest 18 reserved seats for STs, BJP has started preparations to make a strategy to enter into the tribal populated seats. Celebrating the JGD is considered a part of this strategy to woo tribal voters in upcoming state Assembly polls in 2023 and Lok Sabha elections in 2024. A total of 47 Assembly seats in the 230-membered state's Assembly are reserved for the tribal community. MP has the highest number of tribals in the country at about 21.5 per cent of the state's population according to the 2011 census. In 2018, Congress won 31 seats and came to power while BJP secured 16 seats only. BJP registered a thumping victory in the 2013 Assembly elections and got 31 Adiwasi seats.

"A total of 82 reserved Assembly seats hold key to securing power in the state. BJP has now started to focus on the reserved community," said Vinod Sharma, a senior journalist, and political analyst.

The tribal seats are considered to play a decisive role for both parties to come to the power in the state.

"The BJP always takes care of tribes and pays respect to them. Observing the birth anniversary of tribal leader Birsu Ji as the JGD is the respect to the Adiwasis and the honor of their contribution to the freedom struggle", MP Minister for Finance, Jagdish Devda told Millennium Post. "Our party is based on an organization and the cadres. It prepares for the elections 365 days so it has become the biggest party in the world", the senior minister said. The party in charge in the state, P Murlidhar Rao on Monday said that his party was concentrating on Schedule Cast and ST people and also said Brahmin and Banias were in his pocket.

CM Khattar tells Shrine board to work for developing Adi Badri as tourist destination

MPOST BUREAU

CHANDIGARH: Haryana Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar on Friday asked the Shrine Board to work inclusively to develop the Adi Badri religious place as a tourist destination. Besides this, a permanent bus service should be started from Jagadhri to Adi Badri.

The Chief Minister said this while presiding over the meeting of Shri Kapal Mochan, Shri Badri Narayan, Shri Mantra Devi and Shri Kedarnath Shrine Board here Friday. He said that special arrangements should be made for providing facilities for the devotees visiting the Kapal Mochan Mela to be held from November 15 to 19. About 8 lakh devotees from Punjab, Haryana and Himachal are expected to participate in this Mela.

The Chief Minister informed that on Kartik Purnima falling on November 18-19, the number of devotees is expected to be high hence special arrangements should be made for the devotees.

Meanwhile, the devotees have to do a mandatory registration on district administration's portal www.Yamunanagar.nic.in to attend the fair. This link should be widely publicized so that more and more devotees can participate in the fair, directed the Chief Minister.

In the meeting, the Chief Minister was apprised that a control room has been set up in the fair and health check-up counters would also be set up in the fair premises for the convenience of the devotees in view of COVID-19 Pandemic. Apart from this, two mobile units will be present in the fair premises for health checkups and ensure administration of vaccination of devotees. If any devotee is found to be COVID-19 positive, then a 100-bed containment center has been set up for them.

The Chief Minister was further apprised that masks and sanitizers will be arranged at the fair. In view of security, 50 CCTV cameras have been installed along with making 19 check posts. 12 parking arrangements have also been made for the devotees.

The Chief Minister said that arrangements for swings would be made in the fair and Bhajan Sandhya would be organized every evening. The Chief Minister directed the Mela Administrator to organize patriotic programmes in the fair as part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Sagas of sacrifice should also be narrated, especially by the Dhadi Jatha. Besides this, the exhibition will also be organized by all the departments.

Khattar said that according to the faith of the devotees, all religious places including Kapal Mochan Sarovar, Suryakund, Adi Badri, Mantra Devi, and Shri Kedarnath should be developed by constituting an executive committee. All roads to these places should be made along with improvement of Kapal Mochan road from Bilaspur, dividers should also be made, he added.

NEET results: Can't order re-exam for 2 students: SC

NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court Friday set aside a Bombay High Court order which had directed the National Testing Agency to hold fresh exams for two NEET undergraduate aspirants whose question papers and OMR sheets got mixed at a centre in Maharashtra.

A bench of Justices L. Nageswara Rao and B R Gavai said though it sympathised with their cause, it would be difficult to direct re-examination for them alone. "We have perused the results of marks given to no 1 and 2 (students) and the marks given to them. They have attempted most of the questions...With the loss of precious time, they could not answer all the questions and we also appreciate the mental state of young students while writing the exam.

"Though we sympathise with their cause, we find it difficult to direct re-examination for them alone. Therefore, we set aside the direction given by the high court directing reexamination. The writ petition is dismissed," the bench said. The top court was hearing an appeal filed by NTA challenging a high court order which directed it to hold fresh exams for two NEET undergraduate aspirants.

The high court on October 20 directed the NTA, set up in 2018 for conducting the National Eligibility Entrance Test (NEET) for admissions to undergraduate medical courses, to hold a fresh exam for the two students and declare their results along with the main results of the test conducted on September 12. The high court had taken note of the fact that the test booklet and OMR sheet of two medical aspirants — Vaishnavi Bhopale and Abhishek Shivaji got mixed up at the examination centre before the start of the test and ordered that they be given a fresh opportunity to appear.
